Performer and choreographer extraordinaire, Danny is originally from Northern California and is now living in New York. He provides master instruction and his own unique style to create a diverse and fresh class. He performed internationally with "Tap Dogs" and has been on faculty at Broadway Dance Center and Steps in NYC. Danny's diversity ranges from choreographing shows for companies such as Little Tykes, Footlocker, and Discover Card, to co-writing, choreographing, and directing an original dance musical entitled "At The Diner," which was featured at the International Dance Festival in NYC. He recently debuted at Lincoln Center with Brenda Bufalino's "New" Tap Dance Orchestra. In 2010 his work was featured in the "New Voices, New Visions" portion of NYC's Tap City at Symphony Space.
